

Alwar

RAJASTHAN
The Incredible State of India !

Timeless places...

Bala Quila : The Bala Quila is situated on the steep hill of the city, provides a grand view of Alwar. This fort was conquered by Raoraja Raja Pratap Singh, the founder of Alwar. The fort is a forbidding structure with 15 large and 51 small towers and extensive fortifications around main fort at the top. The remains of Jal Mahal, Nikumbh Mahal, Salim Sagar, Suraj Kund and many temples here reflect the grand splendour once this fort was. (Wednesday Close)

Cenotaph of Moosi Rani : An ornamental cenotaph (Chhatri) is situated on the banks of Sagar, a beautiful lake. Carved in marble and sandstone, this has columned pavilions and domed arches with exquisite floral tracery. Mythological and court scenes in gold-leaf painting and sculptures adorn the ceiling. A walk through City Palace and on the banks of Sagar provides you a unique travel experience.

Government Museum : Discover the rich repository of art and artifacts that truly reflect the cultural heritage of Alwar. Explore the best collection of Rajput and Mughal paintings, several rare manuscripts in Sanskrit, Persian, Arabic. Take a tour of the armoury section and have a look at the antiques, swords and arms. (Ticket time 9:45 am to 4:45 pm)

Tomb of Fateh Jung : This spectacular tomb has a massive dome which is an elegant blend of Indian and Islamic architectural styles. It was built in the memory of Fateh Jung, the Khanzada rulers of Alwar and also a minister of the Mughal emperor Shahjehan.

Complete your visit with...

Sariska Tiger Reserve (km) : Nestled in the quaint surroundings of the hills of the Aravallis, Sariska has been a delight for wildlife lovers since many years. It has rich fauna consisting of the tiger, leopard, langurs and various antelopes. (Wednesday Close)
